

SHARMANJI

Our Yarn, Soul Of Your Fabric

About us

Established in 2007, Sharmanji Yarns is a leading textile manufacturer specializing in premium yarns, with roots tracing back to 1962 when Mr. JK Jain initiated the business, later joined by his sons, Mr. Sunny Jain and Mr. Ashu Jain, in 1990. Nestled in India's cotton-rich belt, our state-of-the-art mill stands as a testament to our commitment to quality and innovation, equipped with cutting-edge machinery and online quality control systems ensuring every yarn meets the highest standards.

With an installed capacity of 220k spindles, we have the capability to meet diverse customer demands and cater to a wide range of textile needs. Our success is built on automation and a dedicated workforce, streamlining processes, enhancing efficiency, and maintaining consistency. This dedication ensures prompt customer service and the delivery of superior products.

Driven by our vision to become a global textile leader, we prioritize excellence, innovation, and competitive pricing, propelling us forward on our journey of growth while upholding the legacy of Sharmanji Yarns.

"The secret of success is to do the regular thing phenomenally well."

-J.K Jain
Chairman

"In our industry, being first in market is not everything but customer loyalty is.... . Furthermore, loyalty is not earned by being first, but is earned by being the best. The decision is ours - to adopt mediocrity and survive, or opt for excellence and prosper."

- Sunny Jain
Founder

We as a firm, believe that customers are our most valuable resource. And as we face the challenge of continuing to serve our customers in the textile industry, we continuously change and evolve as per industrial evolution and developments; I would like to focus on what does not change, our commitment to service and quality, our leadership of the markets in which we participate.

Service, quality, innovation and cost effectiveness are four pillars on which Sharmanji weaves its growth story. We will relentlessly strive to be one ahead of competition and reaffirm ourselves to be sustainable in maintaining that position.

And we look forward to delight you with undaunted quality, innovation and passion consistently.

Remember why you started.....!!

“Pursue your goals even despite challenges,
and convert difficulties into opportunities.”
